

The dunes are so wonderful like a beautiful dove.

Dunes calm us like newborn kittens.

The sand is smooth like a soft puppy.

The wind is calm like a sleeping bear.

Grass grows like a beautiful flower.

People swim in the water like nice fish.

I like to climb the dunes because it reminds me of finding treasures.

We sometimes get suntans like a black bear.

The sun gets us hot like bread that just got out of the toaster.

Air is just as fresh as fresh water.

Sometimes we find clam shells when we dive into the water.

The breeze is nice and cool like ice cream.
